Along the riverbank of the Danube, you will cycle towards the Schlögenger loop. The hard granite mountains of the Mühlviertel have forced the Danube into a 180-degree bend. Day 4: Strudengau – Krems/surroundings, approx. 90 km

Next, you leave the quaint baroque village and cycle through Nibelungengau to Pöchlarn, where you can find the significant monument Nibelungen and the birthplace of the renounced artist Oskar Kokoschka. After riding past the Benedictine Abbey of Melk, the rolling hills and vineyards of the Wachau take you through the romantic vineyards of Spitz, Weissenkirchen and ruins in the gorgeous village of Dürnstein. There you can visit the jail in which King Richard the Lionhearted spent time. Moving on to yet another highlight of the day, the 1000 year-old wine city of Krems is where you can enjoy a night of rest.

Day 5: Krems/surroundings - Vienna, approx. 80 km

The last cycling day takes you through the vast and beautiful Tullner fields. As soon as you can see the edge of the Vienna Woods (Wiener Wald) and it is rolling foothills, look and you will find the castle of Greifenstein and the sharply pointed spires of the Klosterneuburg monastery.
